

Free Internet Access Provided on Port Authority of Allegheny County Buses

Port Authority of Allegheny County (Port Authority) buses with Wi-Fi available onboard signs permit you connect to the Internet to do light web surfing such as checking your email and browsing web sites. It is not intended for streaming video or audio or for uses involving large amounts of data.

Please note that during certain parts of the bus route, connection to the Internet may drop due to poor signal coverage in the area and connection to the Internet may otherwise sometimes otherwise be unavailable or of poor signal quality. If a connection is dropped due to poor signal coverage, it can take several minutes for it to reconnect once signal coverage has been found.

ALL USERS OF WI-FI PROVIDED ON PORT AUTHORITY VEHICLES MUST AGREE TO THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF USE BEFORE ACCESS IS PROVIDED. THESE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF USE MAY BE UPDATED BY PORT AUTHORITY AT ANY TIME IN ITS SOLE DISCRETION.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF USE

Port Authority offers Wi-Fi Internet connectivity service (Service or Port Authority's Service) to bus patrons on certain Port Authority buses enabled to provide the Service at no cost to patrons, provided that all patrons using the Service first read and agree to these Terms and Conditions of Use (Terms of Use). Port Authority reserves the right to change or terminate the service or change these Terms of Use at any time, with or without notice to patrons, in Port Authority's sole discretion.

PORT AUTHORITY OFFERS THE SERVICE AS IS AND MAKES NO WARRANTIES OR GUARANTEES OF ANY KIND, EITHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED. BY CONNECTING TO THE INTERNET VIA PORT AUTHORITY'S SERVICE, THE PATRON ACKNOWLEDGES AND ASSUMES SOLE RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE RISKS ASSOCIATED WITH PUBLIC ACCESS TO THE INTERNET, AND HEREBY FULLY RELEASES, INDEMNIFIES AND HOLDS HARMLESS PORT AUTHORITY, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO PORT AUTHORITY'S DIRECTORS, OFFICERS, EMPLOYEES AND AGENTS, FROM ANY AND ALL ACTUAL, SPECIAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES OR LOST PROFITS THAT MIGHT OCCUR (WHETHER FORESEEABLE OR NOT) ARISING OUT OF THE PATRON'S USE OF THE INTERNET VIA PORT AUTHORITY'S SERVICE.

The Internet is a public communications network that contains a large amount of content. Port Authority is not responsible for the accuracy, timeliness, quality, nature, character and/or privacy of content that is accessed or transmitted by patrons using the Internet via Port Authority's Service..

Port Authority explicitly prohibits the use of the Internet via the Port Authority Service to engage in illegal, actionable or criminal activity; to violate any local, state, or federal statute, law, ordinance or regulation; to seek access into unauthorized areas or use access codes and/or network identification assigned to others; to access, transmit, upload, or download pornographic, obscene, or sexually explicit material; to threaten, libel and harass others; to violate the copyrights or other intellectual property rights of others; to tamper with Port Authority's network security; to impede, disrupt, or engage in unauthorized monitoring of the Internet use of others; to violate software license agreements; and/or to engage in the unauthorized disclosure, use, and dissemination of personal identification information regarding adults and/or minors.

Port Authority is not responsible for providing security measures for patron software or hardware or use of the Internet via Port Authority's Service. The patron is solely responsible for providing all appropriate antivirus and firewall software, and other desired or necessary protections for their devices that the patron deems appropriate and necessary.

Port Authority reserves the right to monitor sites accessed by patrons of the Service.

If illicit or unauthorized Internet sites are accessed by a patron, Port Authority reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to block service temporarily or permanently to that patron. Parents and guardians are expected to monitor their children's use of the Internet at all times while using Port Authority's Service.

Port Authority is not responsible for any hardware devices, software and/or other personal property used to access the Internet via Port Authority's Service.

Port Authority staff is not permitted to support patron connectivity or computer issues of any type, cannot provide any technical assistance, and can only verify the current operational state of the Service. Port Authority does not guarantee availability or access to the Internet or minimum Internet connection speeds on Port Authority's Service at in any nature or manner.

Port Authority is not responsible for loss of data due to service delays or interruptions. Agreement to these Terms of Use is required to use Port Authority's Service. To agree, please click the "I Accept" link to begin using and accessing the Service.

Agreement to these Terms and Conditions of Use is required to use Port Authority's e Service.

By clicking "I Accept" you confirm that you have read, understand, accept and agree to all Terms of Use stated above and will be bound by same at all times that you have access to and utilize Port Authority's Service.